

9. The person _____ I saw in the shop was my new boss.
10. The sandals _____ I am wearing are very old.

2) NON- DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES. Combine the following sentences . Use WHO, WHICH, WHOSE or WHEN.

1. Ivan is very good-looking. (He's Helen's brother.)
2. The book is about a murder on the Nile. (It was written by Agatha Christie.)
3. The diamond necklace has been found by the police. (It was stolen last week.)
4. Steven Spielberg lives in Hollywood. (He is a famous film director.)
5. My friend Isabel wants to do media studies.(Her father is a TV presenter.)
6. The new club plays great music. (Jamie works there.)
7. My holiday in Ibiza was wonderful. (I first met Jenny then.)
8. The new band is very good. (It was formed last year.)

3) DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES. Combine the following sentences . Use WHO, WHICH, THAT, WHERE or WHEN.

1. That's the school. I used to go to it.
2. There's the girl. I was telling you about her.
3. That was the day. They got married then.
4. She's the girl. Her brother plays in the football team.
5. That's the café. I meet my friends there.
6. This is the film. I've been waiting to see it
7. for ages.
8. Have you met the girl? She's going out with Ted.
9. These are the trainers. I bought them yesterday.

4) Combine the sentences with a relative pronoun and decide if they are defining or non-defining including commas where necessary.

1. The boy is going to travel with me. You saw him sitting next to me yesterday.
2. My brother John is going to travel. You saw him sitting next to me yesterday.
3. She was thinking about the two jobs. They had been offered to her.
4. He was smoking a cigarette. It was forbidden there.